SUBMISSION IN THE GARDEN

+ "When Jesus had spoken these words, and when they had sung a hymn, they went out, and he came out and he went out with his disciples, as was his custom, across the brook Kidron, out to the Mount of Olives, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Then Jesus went with them, and they went to a place called Gethsemane. And when he came to the place, he said to them "Pray that you may not enter into temptation." And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, James & John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled. And he withdrew from them about a stones, throw and then he said to them "My soul is very sorrowful even to death; remain here and watch with me

+ And going a little further he knelt down, fell on the ground, and fell on his face and prayed "Abba, my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: all things are possible for you; if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Yet nevertheless not as I will, but as you will. Not my will, but yours be done. And there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow, and he said to them "why are you sleeping? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation. And he said to Peter "Simon, are you asleep?"

+ Could you not watch one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The Spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." And again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, saying the same words, saying "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done." And again, he came and found them sleeping for their eyes were very heavy, and they did not know what to answer him. So, leaving them again he went away and prayed for the third time saying the same words again, and then he came to the disciples, the third time "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough; the hour has come. And the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand."
